Verse 1

I think about leaving here for the country almost every day
Wondering about a future and this city life
The babies grown and jumping almost every single night
And even lately I know for me, played loud feels right

Chorus 1

I don't get it
This all used to feel just fine
I belonged and it was mine
Something new every night
Nothing wrong, just city life

Verse 2

Now fewer friends are calling
But I have learned it's okay and how to let them go
Still like to dance the tango
Just move a little slow
Dressed this way for the cold
But sometimes it's lovely
It's everything I need
The best friend I know

Chorus 2

So okay, I'm just being sentimental
It's not so very special
Just can't help but try
It's just this city life

Guitar break

Verse 3

Who's in control
Nobody's home and I'm calling
Been alone too damn long
And I'm failing
City life
And we're calling
Thinking twice
'Bout city life
